

“I THINK I’M A GOOD CANADIAN,
BUT I’M NOT THE GREATEST CANADIAN.”

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Don Cherry'.

Mr. Cherry, Not only do we think you’re good,
we think you are irreplaceable.
You truly embody the word “Canada”.
You have inspired generations of Canadians
to be better Canadians.
You make us all proud to be Canadian.
You are Canadian. You are a Legend.

Donald Stewart "Don" Cherry (born February 5, 1934) is a Canadian ice hockey commentator for CBC Television. He is a sports writer, as well as a retired professional hockey player and NHL coach. Cherry co-hosts the "Coach's Corner" intermission segment (with Ron MacLean) on the long-running Canadian sports program Hockey Night in Canada, and has also worked for ESPN in the United States as a commentator during the latter stages of the Stanley Cup playoffs. Nicknamed Grapes, he is a Canadian icon known for his outspoken manner, flamboyant dress, and staunch Canadian nationalism.

Mr. Cherry played one game with the Boston Bruins, and later coached the team for five seasons after concluding a successful playing career in the American Hockey League. He is also well known as an author, syndicated radio commentator for the Sportsnet Radio Network, creator of the Rock'em Sock'em Hockey video series, and celebrity endorser.

Mr. Cherry was voted the seventh greatest Canadian on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's television special, The Greatest Canadian! Awesome!
